

The HVACR Education Resource Network (HERN) is a network of educators, trainers, educational institutions, manufacturers, curriculum providers, wholesalers, credentialing bodies, soft skill providers, furnishers, teaching aids, and other industry-related organization stake holders, who have come together to support the development of world class HVACR training programs in an effort to provide schools and other industry training programs with the tools and resources necessary to produce a highly skilled workforce. HERN enables associate members to become the ultimate resource, the one stop shop, for administrators, trainers, and educators.

HERN Associate Membership

Associate members shall be those product or service providers who agree to work with HERN to provide their unique products and/or services to schools, training programs, etc. There will be no exclusivity in providers and/or services so that HERN may:

- maintain a diverse offering of brands, resources, supplies, equipment, etc., covering various technologies and services, to meet the specific and regional goals of each program we serve.
- meet the needs of each program in a timely fashion.
- assist state funded programs in maintaining their purchasing requirements.

Associate members are not required to pay a membership fee and/or contribute to the operating expenses of HERN.

By registering as an Associate member of HERN, you will agree to provide:

- a principle contact/s including name, address, phone numbers and their assigned role in HERN.
- a written description/details of any discount programs/pricing available to schools and/or training programs.
- a written description/details of any of training programs offered to schools/instructors.
- a written description/details of any school donation programs including the criteria for acceptance.
- authorization to HVAC Excellence/ESCO for the use of your name and logo in print (brochures, flyers, marketing collateral) and/or digital use (website, digital applications, etc.) in association to your participation in the HERN program. (HVAC Excellence/HERN acknowledges and agrees that the use of your company name and/or logo will be for promotional purposes of the HERN program only. The use of your name and/or logo does not constitute any other agreement or partnership. Your logo will be used in accordance to any established guidelines set forth by your company.)
